

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

In celebration of National Library Week, the Altadena Library District, in partnership with the Altadena Historical Society, will offer two walking history tours.

Each will take place at the Main Library.
600 East Mariposa Street

MILLIONAIRES ROW

DATE [TBD]
TIME [TBD]

Explore Altadena's history and architecture on "Millionaire's Row. This walking tour will cover Co. G.G. Green home & Carriage house, the McNally House, Camp Mariposa, and the Theosophical Society. This tour will be lead by Altadena Historical Society docents.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED SIGN UP AT:

ALTADENALIBRARY.ORG/PROGRAMS

MID-CENTURY MODERN ARCHITECTURE FUTURE OF THE ALTADENA LIBRARY DISTRICT

DATE [TBD]
TIME [TBD]

The Main library was design by architect Boyd Georgi [1967]. This gem of a building is a prime example of Mid-Century Modern Architecture. Come learn more about Mid-Century Modern architecture and learn about the future renovation plans for this beloved community building.

